MORE FIRMS CONCEDE NEW STOGIE SCALE.

Little Probability Now That the Threatened Strike Will Occur Next Monday.

THE JACKSON COUPON RULING

May Affect the "Mail Pouch" Concern—Company's Attorney is Investigating.

Following the announcement of the two stogie firms mentioned in yesterday's Intelligencer, several others have acceded to the demands made by their employees for a wage advance to go into effect on Monday. The manufacturers that have agreed to the rate of $3.50 per 1,000 are: Augustus Pollack, Hugo L. Loos, Munn & Brandfass, Martin Pebler and M. Marsh & Son.

The stogie rollers say that other local firms will fall into line and that everything will be settled satisfactorily without a strike. The new wage rate, while fifty cents per 1,000 more than paid in other stogie-making towns, will be modeled after in these towns shortly, say the stogie rollers, and they add that the men in Marietta are now preparing to ask for an advance. Wheeling has always paid twenty-five cents more than the other towns and with the granting of the increase here it is likely a proportionate increase will be made elsewhere, bringing up the scale in the other towns to $3.25, the price paid in Wheeling since 1892.

The stogie rollers first perfected an organization here in 1882. It was known as Garfield Assembly, of the Knights of Labor, and three years ago it became Garfield local No. 1, of the National Stogie Makers' League. The stogie industry has branched out from Wheeling so that there are unions now in Cleveland, Cincinnati, New Castle, and other towns within a twenty-five-mile radius.

Although granting the increase asked for, the manufacturers say that it will reduce their profits to a minimum, and one of them said he is willing to grant an additional increase if the recent war tax could be removed. Another feared that the local cigar makers would shortly be asking for an increase in their wages. The prospective settlement happily removes the fear of a disastrous strike.

THAT COUPON DECISION.

President Bloch Unable to Tell Whether It Will Affect the "Mail Pouch" System.

The decision of Judge John Jay Jackson, of the United States district court, sitting in Parkersburg, prohibiting the placing of coupons in the tobacco packages for the purpose of increasing the business of the "Merry World" tobacco company, is a very important decision and involves all the tobacco manufacturers of the United States who have been following the coupon system.

As soon as the full text of the decision became known in this city there was some discussion as to the effect it would have on the Bloch Bros. Tobacco Company, of Wheeling, which has been conducting business on the same line.

An Intelligencer man had an interview with Mr. S. S. Bloch, president of the company, and he said: "I am unable to state the effect it will have on us at this time. We only have the newspaper reports to go by. Our attorney, Mr. Henry M. Russell, has gone to Parkersburg, to get a copy of the decision and until he returns we are unable to talk."

It is said that the firm has fared very well by using coupons as a means of extending its business, and it is the general opinion that the Jackson ruling will have an adverse effect on the local concern. It is understood that the ruling will apply to all tobacco pouches with coupons after July 8, and those so filled in violation of the ruling can be confiscated.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Wheeling Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., will confer the first degree on two candidates Saturday evening. There will also be an election of officers. All members are requested to be present.

It has been learned that the National Exchange bank declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent at its meeting on Tuesday, which fact testifies to the prosperity enjoyed by this institution.

Special Officer W. M. Johnson yesterday arrested James Jones, who was drunk and raised a disturbance at the "Fewkey" depot. Squire Fitzpatrick committed James Jones to jail for ten days of the heated season.

Yesterday evening, the sisters of Mt. de Chantal received the sad news of the death of Miss Clara Paff, a bright and promising pupil of the academy. Miss Paff, who died at her home at Beaver, Pa., left the academy a few weeks ago in perfect health. Her untimely demise will be regretted by many Wheeling friends.

The spur wheel at the puddling department of the Wheeling steel works, at Benwood, broke down yesterday, forcing the puddlers to lay off. The wheel was repaired a few weeks ago and now a new wheel may be necessary in which event the puddlers will be idle until it is set in place, a job that will take several weeks.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

Mrs. J. E. W. McCulley and daughters will return from Tarentum, Pa., tomorrow, after a visit to her parents. Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Barney Reilly and Mrs. Conners, of Newark, O., are visiting at the home of Lee Wells, on South Market street.

Mr. Joseph T. Williams, sr., of New York City, is here visiting his son William Williams, of this city. Mr. Williams will remain in West Virginia for a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hook and daughter, Clara; Messrs. Harry and Earl Lutz, Misses Regina and Helen Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lutz, left for the Baltimore & Ohio last night for Atlantic City.

DRUG CLERKS TO PLAY.

Pill Rollers From Both Sides of the Creek to Grapple Next Monday.

The frisky young gentlemen who are replete with pharmaceutical lore all through the gamut from handing out a plain soda to a postage stamp, will meet on the Island ball park diamond next Monday afternoon to decide the superiority of the brethren north or south of the creek, as the case may warrant. In Wheeling there are about fifty drug clerks and some of them, notably Ed. Comerford, who smiles from the interior of John Klari's corner retreat, are smooth sailors on the base ball sea. For the South Side prescription fillers the battery will be Tappe and Ellsworth, while Comerford and Ellis will be in the points for the north-of-the-creek section. A large crowd will likely witness the agony, and there will be no lack of liniments and absorbent cotton.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Moving Machinery Expert Instantly Killed at Bellaire.

George Williamson, single, and aged about thirty years, was literally ground to pieces at the Rose & Morgan coal works, near Bellaire, yesterday. Williamson came from Nelsonville and was instructing the Rose & Morgan people in the operation of the machinery, handling of cars, etc. Yesterday a train of cars was being hauled out of the mine and Williamson was standing on the edge of the rear car. The train broke in two and four or five cars started back down the incline to the mine. Williamson was in some way thrown or fell off the rear car and was caught under the wheels.

He was crushed to death instantly. The body was removed to Bralley's undertaking establishment and prepared to be sent to Nelsonville. The accident is deplored by everybody and was most unfortunate just when things seemed to be working well at this practically new mine, just newly equipped with modern machinery.

In the Courts.

The circuit court will convene tomorrow morning, when sentences will likely be meted out to Michael Kelly, William Chapelle, Joseph Driller and Ivory Lynch.

Judge Hervey sitting in Part I of the circuit court, yesterday granted a writ of prohibition in the two cases of George Johnston vs. Annie M. Hunter et al, which was being tried before Justice Rogers out of his proper district.

On a Serious Charge.

Constable Waite arrested Ben Turner, a man past middle age, yesterday, at the La Belle nail factory, where he was employed, on a paternity charge, preferred by Anna Pfifer, a young woman who lives in East Wheeling. Turner, who has grandchildren, was committed to jail by Squire Fitzpatrick, in default of $400 bond for his appearance before the circuit court.

A very pretty wedding occurred last evening at the Fourth street M. E. parsonage, the Rev. Dr. Sooy officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Lula M. Ferguson and Mr. Ed M. Handy, two prominent young people of the city. The bride and groom are well known in church and musical circles. On account of illness in the groom's family the affair was very quiet. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple were driven to No. 71 Seventeenth street, where they will be at home to their friends after July 8.

Mr. Tappan McGee and Dora Bartollas were quietly married in the parsonage of St. John's church, by Rev. William Ulfert, the pastor, last evening.

On Wednesday evening Mr. George Bayha and Miss Mary Kalbitzer, of the Eighth ward, were united in marriage. Rev. Haas performed the ceremony. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents.

Yesterday was the twenty-fourth anniversary of Hermann lodge No. 6, A. O. U. W., and the event was fittingly celebrated on Wednesday evening, their regular meeting night. This lodge has proven to be one of the solidest of the order, having paid $80,000 for death benefits. Speeches were made by several members, after which refreshments and lunch were served.
